Descendants of Thomas John Chapman (by Dan W. Olds), []

Generation One

1. THOMAS JOHN¹ CHAPMAN; Although usually called Thomas, there are some indications that his name was Thomas John. He is called Thomas J. on the death certificate of his son John A. and called John on the death certificate of his daughter Cornelia Duncan. He was born circa 1815 in South Carolina.¹ He married Charlotte Smith circa 1837.²

1 f 20-30 [Charlotte]

[This fits the facts of "our" Thomas Chapman family reasonably well. Enoch Chapman is listed on this census as well. I mention this because "Lisa Tucker's Family Tree" on Ancestry shows Enoch as the father of John. No sources are given for this.].³

Thomas John Chapman and Charlotte Smith appeared on the census of 9 Dec 1850 in Greenville County, South Carolina, as follows:

Thomas Chapman, 32, m., laborer, b. S.C.

Cornelius, 2, m., b. S.C. [clearly Cornelius, male!]

[The next family is headed by Enoch Chapman, 57, and Elizabeth, 56, also natives of S. C.].⁴
